

Amersham Band

presents

Brass Roots

Conductors: Paul Fisher/Ashley Horton

If you are learning to play a brass instrument, why not come along to Brass Roots? Our brass group for beginner and elementary level players. You can develop your brass skills, have fun and make some new friends at the same time.

Thursdays, 6:30 – 7:15 pm

at Winchmore Hill Methodist Church

Starts in the Autumn term on 10th Sept 2015

£40 per term (school term time only)

Brass Roots will be held at the Methodist Church Hall,
The Hill, Winchmore Hill,
Amersham HP7 0PA.

For more information contact Barbara on 01494 715672
or email
amershamband@gmail.com

Conductors: Our conductors are both professional musicians with many years playing and teaching experience in a wide range of musical genres. They have played in countless West End shows and professional orchestras and have worked with pop artists including Madness, Jools Holland, Van Morrison and Gloria Estevan to name but a few. Paul Fisher is the author of the popular “Band-Time” teaching method.

www.amershamband.com/brass-roots